Dear Upper School Student,

Congratulations on the completion of your exams!

Final certificates will be issued by 31 October 2026 and we will contact you when they are ready to be collected. Art work will not be available for collection until October.

Once you have your results, if you think a mistake has been made in the marking of your script and you would like to apply for a review, please contact your teacher in the first instance. If your teacher agrees on the suitability of embarking on such a procedure, he/she will contact the Exams Officer. If you are not able to contact your teacher, or you have any further questions, please email the Exams Officer via emily.worth@michaelhall.co.uk

If the decision is to go ahead, please complete and sign the JCQ appendix A and B form (found in the post results information booklet) before any such enquiry is started (this can be done by email) as a review of your exam might end up lowering your final mark as well as the possibility of raising it. The Exam Boards do not accept requests directly from candidates or their families.

Please note each Enquiry about Results carries a specific cost depending on the level of qualification being reviewed and the service requested.

Please see the following documents for each exam boards costings and mapping of how the post result services are carried out.

Warm regards,

Emily Worth
Exams & Data Officer

Post-results services: Summary guide

Summer 2026

If you're unhappy with an exam result, there are options available.

If you're a learner, the best thing to do is to speak to your school or college about your options. You might decide to see a copy of your exam paper, ask for a review of marking, or resit the exam.

Post-results services process flow charts on pages 2, 3 and 4:

Access to scripts

Request access to scripts (marked papers) on Centre Services to decide on reviews of marking and to support your teaching and learning.

Access to scripts (marked papers) services are free for a priority copy of marked paper and our standard copy of marked paper services.

Marked papers will be available on Centre Services once they're complete and will show the learner's written answers and the examiner's comments and marks.

Deadlines for access to scripts (marked papers) requests:

- 27 August 2026 – priority copy of marked paper (AS, A-level, AQA Certificate Level 3, Applied General qualifications)
- 3 September 2026 – priority copy of marked paper (GCSE)
- 30 October 2026 – standard copy of marked paper for teaching and learning purposes

Tip: if a university or college place is pending, go straight to priority review of marking.

Clerical re-check

A clerical re-check of a marked paper will make sure that all pages were marked, the marks were all counted, and that the marks on the paper match the result.

For concerns about the content on a marked script or annotations, request a review of marking.

Deadline for requests: 24 September 2026

Review of marking

If you're concerned that the examiner has made a mistake marking your learner's script, you can consider requesting a review of marking. If a review of marking leads to an overall subject grade change, we will not charge for it.

Remember, there is no grade protection for reviews of marking. This means that learners' marks and subject grades may be lowered, confirmed, or raised as a result. You must seek each learner's consent before submitting a request.

Deadlines for review of marking requests:

- 20 August 2026 – priority review of marking (AS, A-level, AQA Certificate Level 3, Applied General qualifications)
- 24 September 2026 – review of marking (standard service) (for all qualifications).

Data Insights

Data Insights will allow you to dig deeper into your results and see how your school, subject, class and individual learners have performed.

You can download results into a spreadsheet and review graphs for teaching and learning purposes and use these in your school SLT reports.

Find out more: aqa.org.uk/data-insights

Missing results

Exams Officers can email us to query any missing or incomplete results:

- No Result (X) – learner was absent for all parts of the exam
 - Pending (Q) – no result has been issued as the marks for one or more components of the exam are not available.
- We'll investigate this as quickly as possible, and let you know the outcome. We'll update Centre Services within 24 hours and tell UCAS if necessary.

Tip: please tell us if there are any missing A-level results - we'll always prioritise results where a university or college place depends on the outcome.

Review of moderation

If your school or college's internally assessed non-exam assessment (NEA) mark was adjusted away from centre marks during moderation, you can request a review of moderation on Centre Services to check the assessment criteria was applied fairly, reliably and consistently to the national standard.

- A review of moderation is only available for the full cohort in a subject. Individual learners cannot apply.

Did you know?

Question papers

If you did not get a chance to see the exam paper or insert on the day of the exam, Exams Officers can download copies of the papers from Centre Services 10 days after the exam. You can use these with your learners for any future mock assessments and teaching and learning purposes. Remember, all exam papers and inserts must be kept secure in your classrooms. You can download summer 2026 question papers and mark schemes from Centre Services on results day.

Reports on the exam

For most components, the Lead Examiner produces an examiner's report from results day. The report is based on observations of a wide range of learner responses to questions and provides great insight into how the exams went including common misconceptions - and can help you and your learners prepare for the next exams. The majority of reports will be available on Centre Services from results days (available from August and September).

NEA summer 2026: post-results services

Review of results for NEA at all levels

Key dates

- 13 August 2026: A-level results day
- 20 August 2026: GCSE results day
- 24 September 2026: Deadline for review of moderation requests

Things to note

- Only cohort review is available for review of moderation
- Written candidate consent is not required for a review of moderation
- Letters of concern must not be submitted with any review request (4.4.3 JCQ Post-Results guidance)
- No priority service is available for any NEA component
- For visiting components, keep in mind that it is often easiest and fastest to arrange these visits outside of term time

Clerical re-checks, reviews of marking and appeals

Candidate consent form

Information for candidates

The following information explains what may happen following a clerical re-check, a review of marking and any subsequent appeal.

If your school or college submits a request for a clerical re-check or a review of the original marking, and then a subsequent appeal for one of your examinations after your subject grade has been issued, there are three possible outcomes:

- Your original mark is lowered, so your final grade may be lower than the original grade you received.
- Your original mark is confirmed as correct, so there is no change to your grade.
- Your original mark is raised, so your final grade may be higher than the original grade you received.

To proceed with the clerical re-check or review of marking, you must sign the form below. This tells the head of your school or college that you have understood what the outcome might be, and that you give your consent to the clerical re-check or review of marking being submitted.

I give my consent to the head of my school or college to submit a clerical re-check or a review of marking for the examination(s) listed above. In giving consent, I understand that the final subject grade and/or mark awarded to me following a clerical re-check or a review of marking, and any subsequent appeal, may be lower than, higher than, or the same as the result which was originally awarded for this subject.
